H. WALTER LEWIS, SUICIDE

Young Blacksmith, Despondent After Protracted Spree, Sent Bullet Through His Body.

In a fit of remorse fonowing a protracted spree and because he could not get more liquor to quench a burning thirst, H. W. Lewis, 33 years of age, a blacksmith formerly employed at the Angola Lumber Co., at his home No. 922 1-2 North Eighth street, between 4 and 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, despite the entreaties of his wife, turned a revolver toward his breast and sent a ball tearing through his body, severing one of the large arteries of the heart and lodging in the muscles of the back. He was taken at once to the hospital but died within less than an hour after reaching there.

The young man has a wife and one child. The wife was in the house at the time of the fatal shot and had been worried all day in taking the pistol away from her husband. It seems that Lewis had been a heavy drinker at times for several years and always when on one of his sprees had a mania of suicide; in fact, he had so often talked of taking his own life, that he was hardly taken seriously yesterday when he repeated the threats. However, out of an abundance of precaution, the wife besought him to put away the pistol and once or twice wrung it from his hands. He had not been sound mentally for some time and one time joined the santicificationists and preached upon one or two occasions in this city. When sober, he is said to have been a hard worker and an agreeable companion.

Mr. W. J. Bradshaw, a salesman at E. M. Andrew's store, a brother of Mr. Lewis and several others were soon on the scene of the shooting yesterday afternoon and did what they could for the wounded man but it was seen from the first that the shot was fatal. The remains were turned over to Undertaker W. E. Yopp last night and will be buried to-day.

THREE ARE ON TRIAL

Highway Robbery on East Wilmington Road Being Investigated in the Court

LITTLE PROGRESS SO FAR

Conductor Croom's Case Continued Until September Term—Housebreakers Given Terms of Five Years—Jury Hard to Get.

Most of yesterday's session of the Superior Court was consumed in a tedious effort to select a jury for the trial of the Mason boys and young Guthrie, charged with highway robbery. A large number of talesmen were summoned by deputies on the streets and brought into court during the afternoon, but it was impossible owing to the large number of objections by attorneys, to get a jury when court took a recess for the day at 5:30 P. M. Only eight of the twelve men necessary have been passed upon by both sides and the four others will be agreed upon when the trial is resumed at 9:30 o'clock this morning. The jurors thus far obtained are J. B. Casteen, Geo. W. Britt, H. Gerdes, F. A. Fennell, H. B. Farrington, A. A. Garrison, James E. Smith and E. F. Bass. There were in the box, not yet passed upon by the State, when court took a recess for the day: W. S. Huggins, D. D. Garrison, T. N. Cordes and J. T. Morgan.

Marsden Bellamy, Herbert McClammy and Woodus Kellum, Esqs., appear for the defence and Solicitor Duffy is being assisted in the prosecution by Wm. J. Bellamy and Brooke G. Empie, Esqs. Every inch of the ground is being contested and a long trial is expected. It now appears certain that the docket will not be cleared at this term, though an effort will be made to dispose of the cases of all defendants who are in jail. The case of T. F. Bell, will be taken up next after the trial of the Masons and Guthrie.

Court met at 9:30 A. M. and the sheriff returned 21 of the 30 talesmen ordered summoned for the day. Not found, O. D. Green, F. G. Dosher, Thos. G. Futch, E. W. Cooper, A. O. Schuster, P. T. Dicksey, Nathan Schloss, P. H. Murphy and John R. Kenly. Excused by the court, R. V. Leonard, H. J. Fennell, Jos. H. Hanby, James Madden and W. G. Sale.

The case of T. C. Croom, charged with embezzlement, was continued until the September term.

Joseph Thomas, carrying a concealed weapon; called and failed; capias issued.

Chas. Michaelis, disorderly house, continued until September term; Marsden Bellamy, Esq., recognized in the sum of $50 for defendant's appearance.

Tom Brown, colored, disorderly house; continued until July term; T. R. Mask became surety for defendant's appearance in sum of $50.

Sam Long and George Boney, charged with breaking into the store of Mr. Montgomery, on Princess street, a few weeks ago, carting off a large amount of goods, pleaded guilty and were each sentenced to the roads of the county for five years. Each of them also pleaded guilty to jail breaking and were given an additional sentence of 30 days each on the roads. A third case of larceny against George Boney was disposed of by suspending judgment.

Case of Maggie Baldwin and Mary Pope, charged with larceny, was nol prossed with leave.

Annie Merritt, colored, charged with carrying a concealed weapon; pleaded guilty and was given 60 days on the county farm.

Elijah Ross, housebreaking; verdict guilty, five years on the roads. In another case for jail breaking the defendant was given an additional 30 days on the roads.

THE DIVORCE GRANTED.

Mrs. Wise Given Judgment Absolute Against Her Husband.

In the Superior Court yesterday afternoon, just before adjournment, an absolute divorce was granted to Mrs. Jessie K. Wise from her husband, J. Clisby Wise, whose whereabouts are now unknown, the service of the summons last March having been by publication. The plaintiff was represented by Hon. C. M. Busbee, of Raleigh, and Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy and Messrs. Rountree & Carr, of this city, and the grounds, as clearly proven, were for the scriptural reasons of infidelity and abandonment. The jury was out only a few minutes answering every issue in favor of the plaintiff. The only witnesses were the plaintiff and Messrs. L. E. Murphy and Maj. S. W. Vance, the two last named being from Birmingham, Ala., and testifying as to evidences of infidelity while the respondent, Wise, was a resident of that city.

The care of the little ten-year-old daughter of the parents was committed to the mother as prayed for in the complaint.

At Beautiful Lumina.

Lumina was alive with excursionists and pleasure seekers from both Charlotte and Marion yesterday and the surf was alive with bathers most all day. The crowds made merry with dancing, skating and bowling. Everyone seems to leave cares and troubles behind when they reach Lumina and the many attractions at this pleasure palace will dispel any case of the blues on earth. When you get blue or worried visit Lumina and you are sure to go home light-hearted and happy.

AN AFTERNOON WEDDING

Miss Mary Estelle Meredith, Charming Young Bride of Mr. Thomas Simms Memory—Bridal Tour.

In the midst of a wealth of beautiful surroundings and in the presence of a large number of admiring friends and relatives, the marriage of Miss Mary Estelle Meredith and Mr. Thomas Simms Memory was most auspiciously celebrated yesterday afternoon at a quarter of three o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Meredith, No. 307 North Second street, this city. The ceremony was performed in impressive manner by the Rev. Fred. D. Hale, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church, in the front parlor of the pretty residence made even more beautiful upon this occasion by an attractive decoration of palms, similax, bamboo and cut flowers over all of which the shutters drawn, a soft light was shed with charming effect. The prevailing colors of the wedding were green and white and the scheme was prettily carried out.

As the guests were assembling for the ceremony and all were in delightful expectancy of the approach of the bridal party, Miss Isabelle Barr, of Charlotte, sang in charming voice "O! Promise Me." Then came the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, as rendered by Miss Britt, and the party entered in the following order: Messrs. H. S. Meredith and C. F. Strosnider, groomsmen, from the rear parlor; the groom with his best man, Dr. W. Ross Davis, of Whiteville, from the same way, being joined at the stair case by the bride accompanied by her maid of honor, Miss Rosa Meredith, a sister, immediately following the bridesmaids, Misses Cora Meredith and Irene Memory, sisters, respectively, of the bride and groom. The party was soon grouped in graceful array about the altar and Pastor Hale in his happiest manner spoke the words which made the popular young people man and wife. The exit from the parlor was to the gladsome strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The bride wore a lovely costume of pearl grey crepe de chine over taffeta and carried an exquisite bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor was prettily gowned in white French lawn, with green girdle, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The bridesmaids were becomingly costumed in white French lawn.

The bride is one of Wilmington's most charming young women and the groom is a popular young business man of Whiteville, N. C., a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Memory, of that town. In testimony of the high esteem in which both of the young people are held a large number of handsome wedding gifts were received. Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding were: Mrs. S. E. Memory, Misses Annie R., and Irene Memory, of Whiteville; Mr. Ellis Nolley, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Williamson, Miss Lilla Memory, Mr. J. F. Barkley, of Whiteville, and Miss Jessie Pickett, of High Point.

Immediately after the ceremony yesterday, a luncheon was served and Mr. and Mrs. Memory left on the afternoon A. C. L. train for Asheville, N. C., going via Columbia and Spartanburg, S. C. They will return in about ten days and will be at home at Whiteville.

NOT IN DUE FORM.

County Commissioners Turned Down 40 of 62 Liquor Licenses.

The Board of County Commissioners was in special session yesterday afternoon and considered at some length the applications for liquor licenses as previously passed by the Board of Aldermen. In consequence of a more rigid standard of judging the eligibility of the endorsees on each application, 40 of the number were refused and 22 were granted. While it was the expressed purpose of the Board to work no hardship upon the applicants, yet the Commissioners, upon the advice of the county attorney, ruled that a freeholder must own property in his own name and that the best evidence of that ownership is the tax books, which were frequently consulted during an examination of the endorsements. Some endorsees were excluded on the ground that they were not proper persons to know of the qualifications of the applicants and one or two names were found on more than one application. The applicants who were refused were given until the regular meeting Monday afternoon to get their applications properly signed. Those not granted yesterday afternoon for the imperfections in endorsements noted were as follows:

Sol. Bear & Co., J. G. Littig, Jr., agent Home Brewing Co.; J. M. Wright, manager, Darley Park Brewery; J. S. Sneeden, Southern Distilling Co, H. E. Truelove, Harry L. Littgin, W. M. SUTTON EXONERATED

United States Commissioner of Fayetteville Against Whom Charges Were Preferred

JUDGE'S CAUSTIC ANSWER

Declares Proceedings "Forged on the Anvil of a Base Conspiracy"—Supported By Affidavits From Prominent Cumberland Citizens.

In the Federal Court yesterday, after an examination of all the papers in the case, Judge Purnell, presiding, issued an order fully exonerating ex-Judge Thos. H. Sutton, United States Commissioner, of Fayetteville, of the charges of official misconduct in unlawfully interceding in the higher court in behalf of certain defendants bound over by him as a commissioner and of all other charges whatsoever upon which was based the rule issued Monday citing the commissioner to appear and show cause why he should not be removed from office. The order came as very gratifying news to ex-Judge Sutton's friends all over the district, who could not believe him guilty of the grave charges preferred, involving his personal as well as his official character. In concluding his answer to the charges, every one of which was successfully met, Judge Sutton said:

"I desire to say in conclusion and under the solemn sanction of the oath which I have taken, in the presence of the Eternal God who made me, and before whom I must some day appear and answer, and in the presence of this Honorable Court, that there is not one particle of truth, either express or implied truth, near or remote, in these charges or insinuations against my character, but before God, I believe that they were forged on the anvil of a base conspiracy and show the unmistakable evidence of being the work of more than one hand. Because I have tried to do my duty, and have been commended for it by the U. S. Attorney, in writing, it seems that I have made enemies, some of whom, as I have heard, wish to be my successor, as U. S. Commissioner, and all of whom desire to destroy me."

Supporting the answer of Judge Sutton were affidavits before Chas. G. Rose by Col. W. S. Cook, Capt. W. E. Kyle, ex-Mayor C. B. McMillan, W. C. Culbreth, W. C. Troy and about twenty other prominent citizens of Fayetteville, stating that Judge Sutton had been a resident of Cumberland for more than 25 years and there had never come to their ears any charge of corruption or dishonesty against him. W. C. Culbreth said he accompanied Judge Sutton on the train to Wilmington and he did not believe that one E. M. Dees, Jr., could have paid him a fee for any intercession as the car was crowded and each passenger had to keep close to his seat to keep from losing it to some one standing. Affidavits attacking the characters of Dees and G. A. Hodges, upon whose charges the rule was largely set on foot, were filed with the answer and signed by A. E. Rankin, J. W. Bolton, W. C. Troy, W. J. McDonald, W. L. Peeples, W. N. Reid, W. L. Biggs, J. H. Benton and Jno. L. Smith. The order of Judge Purnell, in full, is as follows:

In re: Thomas H. Sutton, United States Commissioner.

Charges having come to the knowledge of the court during the present term, that Thomas H. Suttton, a commissioner of this court, affecting the official character of said commissioner in that it was alleged said commissioner had, after holding two defendants, to wit, G. A. Hodges and E. M. Dees, Jr., for trial, accepted fees for representing said defendants as attorney, and in consideration of the fees thus received, interfered with the prosecution of said defendants, a rule was ordered to issue and be served upon said commissioner to show cause why he should not be removed from office as such commissioner. Said rule having been duly served, and respondent filed answer therto supported by affidavits herewith filed, it appears by said answer and affidavits filed that the charges upon which the rule was based are false, without foundation in fact and that the rule herein having been fully answered, the same is discharged.

Some parties, apparent enemies of the said commissioner have during the present term about a week ago and before the rule was issued with apparent sinister design asked an interview with the judge during this term of court and the same being granted, have uttered innuendoes effecting cause and conduct of the said commissioner. These parties were told if they had any charges to make against any officer of this court they must put the same in writing and support the same by affidavits. This they expressed a willingness to do, but have not done.

It further appears by the number of letters received applying for the appointment of commissioner at Fayetteville the charges against respondent are based to a great extent, if not entirely, on the desire of others to secure the appointment of some other person as United States Commissioner at Fayetteville.

The court is informed there is a factional fight in Fayetteville and this matter grows out of the same, but it declines peremptorily to take any part in such factional fight or to lend itself directly or indirectly to the design or ends of either of such factors.

Parties desiring to make complaint against any officer of this court must do so in writing, openly and not covertly or clandestinely. The court will act on none made except as indicated they must be. The first is manly, the other course is cowardly.

THOS. R. PURNELL,
District Judge.

Signed this the 28th of June, 1905.

WHO ADMINISTERED DRUG?

Former Wilmington Man Has Close Call From Opium Poisoning—His Life Yet In Danger.

In a comatose state, evidently very near unto death, Mr. Thomas E. Mayer, for many years a well known resident of this city but for several months past proprietor of a small store on the Wrightsville turnpike, was taken to the hospital about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, as the result of opium poisoning either following an overdose of laudanum or the taking of the drug into his system by some other means. Mr. Mayer came to the city on Tuesday to attend court and while here, got to drinking pretty heavily. Yesterday afternoon he was noticed coming down Princess street, from toward the Court House, in an apparent stupor. He stopped a moment before Plummer's confectionery store but went on after a few minutes and set down in the entrance of Mr. M. H. Kelley's saloon, on the southeast corner of Second and Princess streets. In order to protect the unfortunate man from the gaze of the public, passing to and fro, on the sidewalk, he was taken inside the bar and given a place in the rear. However, it was soon seen from the color of the man's face that there was something radically wrong and Dr. D. W. Bulluck, responded to a hasty summons. It was necessary to adopt heroic treatment from the start and friends and the physicians labored with him manfully until the hospital ambulance could arrive. Even then it was believed that the man was gone, for he responded to artificial respiration very slowly.

At the hospital Dr. Bulluck, Dr. Akerman and others worked with him heroically until after 12 o'clock last night, when it was announced that he was out of immediate danger and semi-conscious. The worst is feared, however, from developments that are expected later.

Whether the drug was accidentally taken; administered by some one for a foul purpose or taken with suicidal intent, no one can say. It is a case which should demand investigation by the authorities. He drank nothing in Mr. Kelley's place, but his movements before reaching there might well be traced.

SEQUEL TO AN ASSAULT.

Fayetteville Attorney Will Sue For Injury at Wrightsville.

County Attorney A. S. Hall and his counsel, N. A. Sinclair, Esq., of Fayetteville, were here yesterday for a conference with Hon. John D. Bellamy, another of Mr. Hall's counsel, with regard to a secret assault which is alleged to have been made on Mr. Hall at Wrightsville Beach one night last week by Engineer Geo. W. Boney, of the Atlantic Coast Line, while the Fayetteville attorney was here attending Federal Court as counsel for other clients. Mr. Hall alleges that while seated near the pavilion of the Consolidated Company Mr. Boney struck him with brass knucks, cutting a deep gash in his head which bled profusely and inflicting two wounds in his back. Mr. Boney, it is said, submitted to a magistrate on the sound. The affair is said to have grown out of a divorce matter in which Mr. Hall appeared against Mr. Boney in the Cumberland Court several months ago.

Mr. Boney is a resident of Duplin county and Mr. Bellamy and Mr. Sinclair have been employed by Attorney Hall to institute a civil suit for damages there against the engineer.

Negro Shoots Another.

James Moore and Harrison Dowell, two negroes returning from a wedding about 11 o'clock last night, had a "fall out" with one another near Seventh and Castle streets and the last named indulged in a little pistol practice on the carcass of Moore. Particulars of the affair are meagre, the negro behind the artillery having fled to his home in East Wilmington before the police could get an interview with him. Moore was struck three times in the back and once on the back of the arm, indicating that he had no stomach for the fight. The wounded negro was sent to the hospital where Dr. Akerman ascertained that the perforations of Moore's anatomy were not serious.

Breaking Into Residence.

Yesterday morning between 3 and 4 o'clock, the wife of Emanuel Shakes, a member of the city street force, was awakened in her room at the family residence, near corner of Ninth and Dawson streets, by a grating sound. She sat up in bed and saw a big, black negro in the act of climbing in a window which he had raised near the bed. She screamed at the top of her voice and the negro, frightened, took to his heels before the men of the house could get sight of him.

Special Trial Offer

THE MORNING STAR

At Reduced Rates

To New Subscribers

For the next sixty days will mail THE MORNING STAR to subscribers outside the city at the following reduced rates:

FOR ONE YEAR $4.00
FOR SIX MONTHS $2.00

Positively, no subscription will be taken at the reduced rates for a period less than six months. For one month the price will be, as heretofore, $1.25 for three months; or, fifty cents for one month.

This offer, as will be noted, is for a limited period only, and is made for the purpose of giving those who appreciate the value of a daily newspaper an opportunity to read the STAR for six months, or more, at a cost of about one and a quarter cents per copy, and then determine whether or not they will continue their subscription at the regular price.

No name will be entered on our books under this offer unless the order is accompanied with the cash.

While this proposition is made primarily to secure new subscribers, old subscribers outside the city may avail themselves of its advantages at the reduced rate provided they pay all arrearages and for not less than six months in advance.

On account of the heavy expense attached to our city circulation department this offer does not apply to city subscribers.

Sample copies mailed free to any address.

Note the conditions of this offer carefully to avoid mistakes.

NOTICE!

THE COTTON STATISTICS LEAK.

We have several times called attention to the fact that the cotton speculators in New York get some inkling of what the government cotton report is to be, as evidenced by the commercial cotton story sent out by wire to the press every night from New York. Invariably it is mentioned that a "bullish" or "bearish" report is anticipated, and sure enough here comes a report in the next day or two confirming the cotton story's forecast of the government report. We have noticed that within the past fortnight the government cotton statistics affected the market in New York at least three days before the statistics were given to the public. If there is not a leak somewhere, there must be a wise prophet connected with the cotton business in New York.

Chief Statistician Hyde, of the Department of Agriculture, was called back a few days ago to Washington from his trip to Europe. On account of the investigation by Secretary Wilson into the complaint about the cotton leak, Mr. Hyde had to come back and lose the opportunity of spending his vacation in his old home in England, of which he is a native. On Monday Secretary Wilson and Mr. Hyde spent two hours together looking over the documentary evidence filed with the Department concerning the cotton leak.

Mr. Hyde had reached Southampton on the steamer on which he had made the trip clear across the ocean, and was on the ship when he received Secretary Wilson's cable message calling him back to Washington. Without looking at a newspaper to see what was going on at Washington he bought a return ticket immediately and returned to Washington to learn what he was wanted for. He probably knew, however, for the question was mooted before he left.

After the conference with Secretary Wilson on Monday, Mr. Hyde declined to talk to the newspaper men about the documents and the evidence examined by Secretary Wilson and himself. In the last few days the Secretary and Mr. Hyde have been going over with the secret service men as to what they have found out about the leak, and probably we will soon get a report of things one way or other.

It is significant, however, that Mr. Hyde did not repeat to the newspaper men his previous emphatic declaration that the Department's system and method of gathering and reporting the cotton statistics were such that a leak of information is impossible. He has probably found out differently.

Whatever the outcome of the investigation is, there will be plenty of people that will always believe that the cotton speculators have got some underground way of getting a pointer as to what the government crop report is going to be.

CHINESE BOYCOTT COMPLICATED.

The Pekin cablegram in the Star yesterday morning gave a different versin of the reasons for the Chinese boycott against American manufactures to what has generally been accepted in this country as the ground of complaint by the Chinese.

While no doubt the Chinese are offended at our manner of treatment of Chinamen of wealth —business men, literary men and the like—who desire to visit the United States on business or otherwise, it seems that is not the most serious complaint they have. It is easy enough to remedy that complaint by having our exclusion law enforced with due respect to the classes of Chinese who are not debarred by our immigration laws. After the recent cabinet meeting at Washington President Roosevelt issued an order to Acting Secretary of State Darling to see to it that American officials at home and abroad having to do with Chinese visitors to this country, shall behave themselves decently and do their duty honestly but with more respect and consideration of Chinese who seek to land from the steamers coming to our shores.

The Philadelphia Press (Rep.) commenting upon the President's act in issuing the order referred to says: "It is disagreeable in the extreme to reflect that it was needed, and that it was not issued until a friendly nation had threatened our trade with a boycott because of injuries and offenses growing out of the indecent and careless conduct of our officials."

The press generally comments in the same tone about a duty which we owe in according decent treatment to respectable Chinese.

However, the Pekin cablegram tells us that the principal cause of the boycott is because we shut the Chinese coolies out of Hawaii and prevent Chinese immigration to the Philippines, in which latter case they always had the immigration privilege when Spain possessed the islands. We don't see very well how the United States can make the co ions which the boycotters as' although we would like to see the matter settled in the interest of business with China. The South is particularly interested because of her cotton goods trade with the Celestials. North Carolina does some business with them but cotton manufacturers tell us that the South Carolina cotton mills have a very large Chinese trade, and that, a few years ago at least, some of the South Carolina mills made goods exclusively for the Chinese trade, with orders from one to two years ahead.

Here is a view of the boycott, taken from the Philadelphia Record before the news came that the Chinese are insisting on immigration to the Philippines:

"Having found the weak place in our armor, by refusing to buy our cottons and other stuffs, the Chinese Government may be emboldened to go further and insist that the United States shall not put up a special bar against Chinese immigration which fails to exclude immigrants of other nations. What answer could the United States make of China should insist on its treaty rights to a square deal?"

TWINKLINGS.

—The Mother—Do you think it right, my dear to receive attention from all these married men? The Daughter—But, mamma, I like them all equally well.—Illustrated Bits.

—Wigg—I never knew such a chonic hand-shaker as Guzzler. He insists on shaking hands with every one he meets. Wagg—That's merely his plan of shaking for the drinks.—Philadelphia Record.

—Husband (time, 1 A. M.)—I shay, m'dear, I (hic) didn't 'shpect to fi' you (hic) sittin' up for me. Wife (calmly)—Oh! that's all right, old boy. I only got in myself about five minutes ago.—Pick-Me-Up.

—"Who is that fellow in the stage box who is laughing so heartily?" "That's the author of the opera." "Rather bad taste." "Not at all. He never heard that comedian's jokes before."—Cleveland Leader.

—"Of course," said the city man, "you know all about the antidotes for snake bites." "Sure," replied the mountaineer. "Well' when a snake bites you what's the first thing you do?" "Yell."—Philadelphia Press.

—Don't you think that some men make a mistake in adopting politics as a career?" "Yes, but it isn't as serious as the mistakes that politics makes in adopting some men as its representatives."—Washington Star.

—"It is hard to tell whom you can trust," said one grafter. "Yes," answered the other. "Sometimes I think there is no such thing as honesty. You never know who is going to turn State's evidence next."—Washington Star.

—Neerbye—I called to see Brassey last evening, but he wasn't at home. Subbubs—O! yes he was. Neerbye—I tell you he wasn't. Subbubs—But I tell you he was—very much at home. Me monopolized the hammock on our porch all evening.—Philadelphia Press.

—"I have here, sir," began the book agent, " a volume containing fifty-two lectures by fifty-two great men. One lecture for every week of the year." "Good gracious, man," replied the meek citizen, "I am married and have a wife that supplies me with a lecture every day in the year."—Chicago News.

No Secret About It.

It is no secret, that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Tex. 25c at R. R. Bellamy's drug store.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—What is about to happen to Linevitch will look very much like a vindication to General Kuropatkin.—Chicago News.

—"The Democrats cannot serve both the corporations and the people," says Col. Bryan. They do not seem to be very busy serving either.—Washington Post.

—The President has found a lawyer who is willing to prosecute the Atchison road in the abstract and let its officers alone. "Let every man escape" are the instructions of General Grant's latest successor.—Philadelphia Record.

—If the exclusion law is to be so construed or modified as to admit Chinese students, we'll probably find that about 100,000,000 Chinamen have suddenly become inspired with the most intense desire to study everything in the books from Confucius down to Laura Jean Libbey and Mary Maclane.—Los Angelese Times.

—In consequence of the manipulation of the markets by the Beef Trust, the export trade in fresh beef alone has declined more than $4,000,000 in the last eleven months. On the other hand, the export of fresh beef from Argentina is largely increasing. Instead of mending its ways at home, the Beef Trust proposes to go to Argentina and obtain a trade monopoly from that Government. But it will be apt to find that a great deal more difficult than to evade the laws of this country. —Philadelphia Record.

—The Trusts have been trying to hide themselves behind that provision of the Constitution which protects individuals from self-incrimination, but Judge Seaman, of the Federal Circuit Court in Milwaukee, holds "that the only constitutional privilege which can be involved is personal, and cannot extend to the corporation or be invoked in its hebalf." Therefore, the General Paper Company much produce its books, and this rule will, of course, apply to the Beef Trust, the Tobacco Trust and all the rest of them.—Philadelphia Record.

Huge Task.

It was a hugh task, to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache, and depression. COTTON MARKETS.

New York, June 28.—The cotton market was sensationally active and firm today. Sales for the day were estimated at fully 750,000 bales and prices gained nearly half a cent a pound or about $3.75 a bale since the close of last Monday. The opening was firm at an advance of 10 to 17 points following very firm cables. There was active covering, stop loss orders having been reached by the initial advance, and commission houses had buying orders from outside sources. There was also very heavy realizing, but nothing to check the generally upward tendency of prices until in the afternoon October reached 9.65, or 47 points above yesterday, on a good spot demand at advancing prices. This was followed by great irregularity with prices at one time about 15 points off from the best, but the bulls were aggressive again just before the close and the market was finally firm at a net gain of 40 to 47 points. According to official reports Southern spot markets were 1-8 to 1-4c higher with some points reporting fair sales. Leading bulls were predicting still higher prices, but there was considerable selling toward the close on the reaction theory following the recent violent advance.

ORTON BUILDING

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—A charter has been issued by the State to the Merchants' Bank of Durham, authorized capital $100,000, C. A. Owen and other stockholders.

—At Raleigh on Tuesday afternoon, Charles Brim, a young white carpenter, attempted suicide by taking laudanum, because his baby was dying. The doctors thinks his recovery doubtful.

—The Edna Cotton Mills at Reidsville have under consideration the building of a new mill near their present plant. In the event that the new mill is not built an addition of 10,000 spindles will be added to the present building.

—"The Summer Visitor" is the name of a little daily paper that will make its appearance this week for the first time at Waynesville, a delightful mountain resort. Mr. Banner Gilmer, a graduate of the University of North Carolina, and his cousin, James Atkins, will be editors and proprietors. The paper will be issued from the presses of The Waynesville Courier, and will be bright and newsy, having such bright boys behind it.

Gastonia Gazette: At the Jones tin mine, near Bessemer, last week, the miners drove out at a 60-foot level and found a 20-foot vein running north and south. At a 100-foot level they found the same vein 24 feet wide. They are now preparing to sink a 6 by 10 shaft 300 feet deep about 100 yards west from the old prospect. The Carolina Tin Company has been working day and night shifts ever since it commenced operations a year ago.

—There was a conference Tuesday at Raleigh between the corporation commission and Vice President Culp, General Freight Agent L. A. Green and Division Freight Agent shaw, of the Southern Railway, regarding a general reduction of freight rates to points in North Carolina on that road. The railway officials will soon make known to the commission what steps their road desires to take. The commission will then know how to act.

—Raleigh correspondence, Charlotte Observer: Mention was recently made in this correspondence for the first time of a compromise by which distilleries at Hoffman and at Hamlet paid a large sum of money, something like $10,000 to the commissioner of revenue, in settlement of claims, and thus escaped prosecution for fraud. It is now stated that ex-District Attorney Claud Bernard is a partner in the distillery at Hamlet which was thus in trouble.

—Durham is to have another bank. It will be a savings bank, and will begin business with a capital of $25,000. Those backing the scheme have given out no statement as yet, but it is learned that practically all of the stock has been taken. This will give Durham five banks. A short while ago a controlling interest in the old Morehead Bank was purchased and this was turned into the Citizen's National. The new savings bank is a new institution that came about on account of this deal, as the owners of the new bank think there should be a savings and State bank to take the place of the old one.

—Charlotte Observer: "I got a special message to-night by the wireless system," said a prominent Republican in front of the Buford last night, "and it was fresh from the Alps of Italy." "What was it about?" asked Col. Jake Newell, who made one of the party. "It read: 'Seen late this afternoon, 6:30, crossing the top, with coat tail flying straight behind and tongue hanging out, one Claude M. Bernard, running like the devil.' That was all. The message was complete and the information all that was necessary. I had wagered on it. That fellow can outrun any short-legged man that ever started on a race. Greenland is the next stop."

—Gastonia Gazette: Mrs. Henry Costner was killed in a runaway at Hoyle's Creek about noon last Saturday. She was the widow of the late Henry Costner, who died about three months, ago, and was 83 years old. With her grand daughter, Miss Verner Costner, she was going over to see her daughter, Mrs. Miles Stroup. They were driving a gentle horse to the buggy. While going down the hill at Hoyle's creek the breech-band broke and the horse ran. At the foot of the hill the wheel struck a tree. Mrs. Costner's arm was broken in three places and her head bruised. She died in an hour. Her grand-daughter was painfully hurt, but will recover.

—In Charlotte on Tuesday morning while going to, or returning from, Wallace's grocery store, at the corner of East Trade and Brevard streets, Mrs. J. D. Smith had the misfortune to loose a roll of bills amounting to very nearly $1,000 from her shirtwaist. Mrs. Smith, whose husband is an empolye of J. H. Wearn & Co., had the money in the house prepartory to depositing it in a bank in the afternoon and she was carrying it with her to the store because she did not care to leave it in the house, which was not occupied while she was away. Mr. and Mrs. Smith formerly lived at Gastonia and the money lost was the price of a piece of real estate they disposed of at their old home some time ago. Four hundred dollars were in $100 bills and the greater part of the balance was in $20 notes.

—A dispatch from Spartanburg, S. C., on Tuesday says: A. B. Martin, aged 54 years, in a despondent moment drowned himself in seven inches of water in a branch which flows between Dean and Converse street, some time during last night. His body was discovered early this morning by an attendant, who began search for him when his absence from his room was discovered. Martin was not a resident of this city, but came here several weeks ago from North Carolina to undergo treatment for illness of long duration, and he resided on Dean street. His aged father came here this morning to visit him and when he learned of his son's act he was overcome, and it is feared that he cannot survive. Martin was a married man and is survived by a widow and two children. His rash act was quite a surprise to those who knew him here, as he seemed in a good frame of mind yesterday.

—Near Lincolton last Friday, Gordon Rudisill, 14 years old, met death in a peculiar manner. Rudisill had dammed up a small stream that flowed a couple of hundred years from his home in order to make a swimming pool. Some time Thursday afternoon some neighbors passed the pool and asked Rudisill to go in swimming with them, but he declined to do so, saying that he had already been in enough for one day. When these left, Rudisill walked a short distance with them, which was the last time he was seen alive. Later in the afternoon his father, becoming alarmed at his long absence, went to search for him. His clothes were found on the edge of the pond. The dam was torn away and his body was found on the bottom, at a place where there had been only about two feet of water. Apparently he had been dead for some time. Scarcely any water was found in the body of the boy, which dismissed the idea that the boy had been drowned. There were no marks on the body, and the cause of his death is a mystery which will hardly ever be cleared.

GET INSIDE.

Your Friends and Neighbors in Wilmington Will Show You How.

Rubbing the back won't cure backache.

A liniment may relieve, but can't cure.

Backache comes from the inside—from the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills get inside—

They cure sick kidneys.

Here is Wilmington proof that this is so:

R. F. Rowan, clerk with L. W. Davis' Clothing House, residing on Castle street between Sixth and Seventh, says: "I strained myself lifting a heavy box, and suffered great pain across my back for a long time. I used plasters and liniments but they did me no good. I could hardly stand up straight, my back was so weak. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in our newspapers I went to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. I felt better the next day and continued using them according to directions and my back regained its old strength. I was simply surprised at the result. I will gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills every time for backache."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. **

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Dying of Famine

Is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store, price 50c. and $1.00 a bottle. Trial bottle free. **

A Bad Scare.

Some day you will get a bad scare, when you fell a pain in your bowels, and fear appendicitis. Safety lies in Dr. King's New Life Pills, a sure cure, for all bowel and stomach diseases, such as headache, billiousness, costiveness, etc. Guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store, only 25c. EQUITABLE REORGANIZATION.

Former President Cleveland and Other Trustees Take Steps.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, June 28.—Grover Cleveland, Morgan J. O'Brien and George Westinghouse, the trustees of the majority stock of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, took the first step in the reorganization of the society today by accepting the resignations of all the directors who had tendered them and in forwarding to the board of directors the names of nine prominent citizens representing the interests of the stockholders, with the recommendation that they be at once elected. The recommendation of the trustees was immediately complied with and the following gentlemen became members of the directorate:

E. B. Thomas, F. G. Bourne, J. E. Schmidlapp, Frederick Roebling, William Whitman, E. W. Bloomingdale, E. W. Robertson, Joseph Bryan and J. J. Albright. All of the new men hold policies of various amounts in the Equitable Society, and their names were submitted in large part by the Society's general agents. W. Robertson is a prominent South Carolinian, whose name was presented to the Equitable trustees by the general agent and policy-holders of that section of the country. Joseph Bryan is a capitalist and representative citizen of Richmond, Va.

The Equitable trustees headed by Grover Cleveland, today issued an appeal to policy-holders asking for an expression of their preferences in the filling of vacancies in the directorate and saying there was no reason for doubt as to the safety of policy investments. The appeal further says:

"The published reports of those who have investigated the past management of the Society and the astounding revelations they bring to light, have impressed us with the grave responsibility resting upon us to prevent, so far as it is in our power, a repetition of a scandalous and tragic chapter in the history of a great life insurance company. The lessons to be learned from the exposures made in these reports are that men who are more concerned in making money for themselves than in discharging a sacred trust should not have control of a life insurance company, and that in the investment of life insurance funds safety rather than large profits should be the rule."

Of the gentlemen whose resignations were accepted all had been made known before except those of George H. Squire, James J. Hill and Alfred G. Vanderbilt. That these gentlemen had sent in their resignations was not known until the fact of their acceptance. A long statement from James H. Hyde replying to the strictures conveyed in the report of State Superintendent of Insurance Hendricks was read at the meeting of the directors . was mainly a defense of the late Henry B. Hyde.

MISS ROGERS' BODY FOUND.

Had Evidently Drowned Herself in Saranac River.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Saranac Lake, N. Y., June 28.—The body of Mary O. Rogers, of Leesburg, Va., was found today in the Saranac river near the cottage from which she disappeared a week ago.

District Attorney Finn today issued an official statement exonerating Willoughby N. Smith, from all blame in connection with the death of Miss Rogers.

Leesburg, Va., June 28.—Miss Mary Rogers was born in this city about thirty-four years ago. She is the daughter of Alexander Rogers, her mother, before her marriage to Mr. Rogers being Miss Julia Clagett, of Leesburg. For many years she was engaged to marry Willoughby N. Smith, an attorney of Baltimore, but would not consent to the marriage during the lifetime of her mother. On account of her mother's age a large part of the care and management of the family estate "Woodburn," near here, devolved upon Miss Rogers. After her mother's death in February, 1903, the estate was sold and Miss Rogers moved to Leesburg, making her home with her sister, Mrs. R. B. Fishburn. It was not long after this, however, that Miss Rogers developed tuberculosis and upon the advice of her physician she went to Saranac Lake, accompanied by a trained nurse, and Willoughby N. Smith. She was exceptionally popular in this community. At no time while in Leesburg did she appear to suffer from melancholia or any other disease of the mind.

Miss Rogers was not a person of great wealth, as has been generally reported, though she had independent means. The bulk of her property came from a legacy of $10,000 in life insurance left her by her brother, Oden Rogers, who died in 1904. It is believed here that she invested this sum on the advice of Smith, but it is not thought that she suffered any financial losses or reverses to any considerable amount or that they contributed to the cause of her melancholia.

HONORS FOR MR. ROOSEVELT.

He Delivered Three Speeches at Cambridge Yesterday.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Cambridge, Mass., June 28.—Although nominally celebrating with his class mates the 25th anniversary of the class of '80, from Harvard University, President Roosevelt was today the honored guest of America's most ancient seat of learning. No degrees of honor were conferred upon him, as he already holds the highest degree the university is empowered to bestow but the welcome accorded him by Cambridge citizens, alumni and college officials was most cordial.

When the President arose today a visitor was awaiting to see him in the person of Mary ... Taylor, the colored woman who did the President's washing while he was at college. Before going to breakfast President Roosevelt appeared upon the veranda where the caller was sitting and shook hands with her and gave her a cordial greeting. The woman had a hard time to convince the police who were on sentry duty about the grounds that she was what she pretended to be. Finally they permitted her to take a seat on the veranda and submitted the question of meeting her to the President. ... soon as he was informed of the episode Mr. Roosevelt said that he would see her.

In the afternoon the delegates enjoyed a trolley ride through the residence portions of the city, and in the evening attended a ball given in their honor at The Manor. Smith, of Raleigh, the present incumbent.

OFFICER SLAIN AND SHIP SEIZED

Mutiny on Board the Most Powerful Battleship of Russia's Fleet at Odessa.

RED FLAG AT MASTHEAD

Captain and Most of Officers Killed and Thrown Overboard—Naval Battle Expected Between Mutineers and Other Ships.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Odessa, June 28.—The red flag of revolution is hoisted at the masthead of the Kniaz Potemkine, Russia's most powerful battleship in the Black sea, which now lies in the harbor in the hands of mutineers.

The captain and most of the officers were murdered and thrown overboard in the open sea and the ship is completely in the possession of the crew and a few officers who have thrown in their lot with the mutineers.

The guns of the Kniaz Potemkine command the city, and in the streets, masses of striking workmen who, yesterday, fled before the volleys of the troops are now inflamed by the spectacle of open revolt on board an imperial warship and are making a bold front against the military.

All day long firing has been heard in many quarters of the city. A number of barricades have been erected andt tumult and disorder reign.

The main squadron of the Black sea fleet, consisting of the battleships Georgei Pobiedonosetz (George The Victorious), Tri Sviatelia, Rostilav and Ekaterina II., with two cruisers, are expected to arrive here to-night and a regular naval battle is in prospect.

The mutineers are in a most defiant mood, and are not inclined to surrender without fighting.

Reports of the mutiny, which occurred while the battleship was at sea, are difficult to obtain, as the mutineers refuse to allow communication with the shore; but it is ascertained that it arose from the shooting of a sailor who was presenting on behalf of the crew a complaint against bad food.

According to one version this sailor, whose name was Owiltchuk, objected to the quality of the "borchtch" or soup, and was immediately shot down by a mess officer. The crew then rose and seized the ship and officers, eight of whom were spared on condition that they would joint the mutineers. The others were killed and their bodies thrown overboard. After a period of vacillation, the Kniaz Potemkine headed for Odessa and arrived here last night accompanied by two torpedo boats. Early to-day the body of Omiltchuk was brought ashore in one of the battleship's boats and landed on the new mole where it has been exposed in semi-state all day. It was visited by thousands of persons, many of whom placed coins in a basket at the head of the body towards a fund to defray the cost of the funeral, which the sailors propose to hold to-morrow, and which the strikers will make the occasion of a great demonstration. An inscription on the dead sailor's coffin states on behalf of the crew that Omiltchuk died for the truth because he presented a just complaint of the crew.

The authorities have made no attempt to remove the body, the sailors having served notice that the ship would open fire on any one seeking to interfer with it. A police agent visiting the spot was killed by strikers.

During the day a red flag was hoisted on the Kniaz Potemkine and members of the crew rode from ship to ship in the harbor forcing the stoppage of all work thereon. Food was supplied them by sympathizers on shore who pillaged the maritime storehouses.

The strike is now general in the city and the rioters are growing in numbers and boldness. There were exchanges of sots all day, but the number of victims cannot be stated. This evening a bomb was thrown in Cathedral palace, killing its thrower and a policeman.

A telegram from the Mayor of Odessa, who is at Moscow, imploring the citizens to restore order, has been posted throughout the city.

During the day one of the torpedo boats which accompanied the Kniaz Potemkine came into the harbor and seized the Russian steamer Esperanza. The steamer was laden with 2,000 tons of coal, which the battleship is taking on board.

The Governor has telegraphed for a squdron to be sent from Sebastopol.

Consternation at St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—2:40 A. M.—More serious in its possible effects than all the defeats in Manchuria or the destriction of Rojestvensky's fleet was the news which reached St. Petersburg early last evening that the standard of open rebillion was floating on board of one of the Emperor's battleships in the harbor of Odessa, and that with shotted guns the mutinous crew headed the eight officers was holding the ship against all comers.

The authorities are in almost a state of panic, and at the admiraly consternation reigns. Admiral Virenius, chief of the general staff of the navy, said to The Associated Press that the admiralty had received advices regarding the mutiny, but that he was unable to give details. He frankly confessed that the situation was very grave, and that he did not know what to expect.

The Black sea squadron which left Sebastopol Tuesday under command of Vice Admiral Kruger was due to revolt at Odassa last night, and a battle with the mutineers may occur at any moment.

The ship is more powerful than any in the Kruger squadron, and the gravity of the situation is increased by the fact that the city is practically in the hands of the strikers, who, according to dispatches had already been encouraged to open resistance by the mutiny of the sailors and were erecting barricades and fighting the police and the troops in the streets.

Ever since the war started, ugly reports about the crews of the Black sea fleet have been current. Men have been shot and even officers court martialed for disobedience, and yesterday at Sebastopol, twelve sailors were condemned to three years in prison for mutiny.

No better evidence of the spirit of the crews is needed than an official announcement made by the admiralty yesterday that Admiral Nebogatoff and the other officers who surrendered in the Sea of Japan would have to stand trial by court martial upon their return. Practically all of the crews of the vessels which surrendered came from the Black sea.

The fact that Odessa is not a fortified port explains why the Kniaz Potemkine is able to lie in the harbor unmolested.

Threaten to Bombard City.

Washington, June 28.—Thomas E. Heenan, American consul at Odessa, to-day cabled the States Department in substance as follows:

"The Russian warship Kniaz Potemkine and one torpedo boat arrived yesterday afternoon. All the officers were murdered at sea and the bodies thrown overboard. The men threaten to bombard the town if interferred with. The situation is precarious. The Black sea fleet is expected to-day."

London, June 28.—A dispatch from Odessa to a news agency dated Wednesday night, says:

"The whole of the quays and buildings around the harbor as well as much shipping are in flames, mobs of incendiaries preventing the fire brigade from working. Troops are kept at bay and are afraid to approach within reach of the Kniaz Potemkine's guns which threaten a disastrous bombardment. The city is appallingly illuminated by burning biuldings and terror prevails everywhere. Sleep is impossible and everybody is watching and waiting. The whole garrison has been requisitioned for patrol duty. It is though that it may become necessary to summon foreign warships for the protection of the foreign colonies. Tuesday night's collisions between the mobs and the police and military, resulted in the loss of 17 lives, including three policemen."

NEW NAVAL REGULATIONS

Naval Board Given More Importance—Unwieldly Sword Not to Be Worn Ordinarily.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Washington, June 27.—Important changes which have been made in the naval regulations by the Bureau of Navigation with the approval of the President and Secretary of the Navy were made public at the Navy Department to-day. In the revised regulations the general board of the navy is given a prominent place by the incorporation in the first chapter of a paragraph giving the composition of the board and section defining its duties. The board is to have a membership of seven as at present with the admiral of the navy at its head.

The duties of the board as given are to devise measures and plans for the effective preparation and maintenance of the fleet for wars, to advise the Secretary of the Navy as to its disposition and distribution, and of the re-enforcement of ships, officers and men o. the navy and marine corps; to prepare and submit to the Secretary plans of campaign, including co-operation with the army and the employment of all elements of naval defense, such plans to be constantly revised in accordance with latest information received. It is to consider the number and types of ships proper to constitute the fleet, the number of officers and men required to man them, and to advise the Secretary as to the estimates therefor to be submitted to Congress.

The wearing of swords aboard ship on ordinary occasions has been practically abolished by the new wording of the regulations respecting their use, a woven service belt and a revolver taking the place of the sword. It is explained by the department that a sword is an unhandy weapon under modern conditions on board ship or in boats and that it serves no useful purpose on occasions other than those of ceremony. The sword will be worn, however, at ceremonies and at infantry and artillery drills on shore.

The regulations governing visitors going aboard vessels under construction have been revised so as to give such permission only to those known to the senior naval officers present as American citizens of good standing and repute. Visitors representing foreign governments or known to be other than American citizens, it is provided, shall not be permitted to go aboard such vessels, except by permission of the Navy Department, and then shall be accompanied by a naval officer on duty at the navy yard or works where the vessel is building.

The ships to which captains may be ordered in command, are limited to battleships and armored cruisers, while commanders have had their duties afloat extended to the command of protected cruisers of the first rate and lieutenants are made eligible for the command of destroyers or torpedo flotillas.

TEN CENT COTTON IN NEW YORK.

Another Excited Market Yesterday—Bad Crop News.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, June 28.—The local cotton market was excited to-day and prices advanced approximately 50 points in the various options to January. This was equivalent to an advance of $2.50 a bale over last night's closing quotations and followed an advance of 30 points in yesterday's session and a previous advance in the last two or three weeks of nearly a cent a pound. A number of spot dealers and exporters appear to have sold too heavily ahead in contracting for delivery to spinners and were compelled to buy during to-day's excited rise on reports of cad crop conditions.

There was heavy realizing by the old bull interests, but the market was so big and broad and apprehension over the new crop situation was so tense that this liquidation was readily absorbed and prices easily sustained most of the exceptionally heavy advance, with the July option selling up to about 9.50 with August and September going to 9.60, October to 9.65, December to 9.75 and March deliveries practically reaching the ten cent basis. Sales were estimated at 750,000 bales.

The spot markets were equally excited, with spot cotton here advancing 40 points to the basis of 9.90 cents a pound for middling.

New Orleans, June 28.—Unusual excitement attended the trading in cotton to-day. The market opened excited at an advance to 18 to 19 points in the active positions. Some heavy selling orders on the call were quickly taken up. The upward tendency was steady and in the afternoon the advance was equal to about $2.50 per bale. At that time July was up 45 points at 9.64; October, 45 points at 9.54; and December 46 points at 9.60. The cause for the rise was the development of the bull campaign and bullish crop news.

GEN. STEPHEN D. LEE HONORED.

Columbia Post, G. A. R., has Confederate Commander as Guest.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Chicago, June 28.—For the second time in its history, Columbia Post, No. 708, G. A. R., has given a camp-fire in honor of General Stephen D. Lee, of Vicksburg, commander of the Confederate Veterans of the South. All of the Confederate organizations of the city joined in the event. Addresses of welcome were delivered by General John Corson Smith, department commander of the G. A. R. for Illinois, Junior Commander Patton of the National G. A. R. and by other prominent veterans. The feature of the Bivouac was an appeal by the Southern soldier for the return of the tattered flags and banners that adorn G. A. R. trophy rooms to the men from whom they were won during the struggle of the '60's.

In regard to the recent action of Congress providing for the return of the flags now in the war office at Washington to the Confederate soldiers, General Lee said:

"I am glad the wound has healed so that the flags can be returned before those who lowered them and bled for them are all under the sod."

At Birmingham, Ala., yesterday the Birmingham Terminal Company was organized, the object of which is to construct and operate a union passenger station in Birmingham, which will be used by the Southern, Alabama, Great Southern, Central of Georgia, Seaboard Air Line and 'Frisco.

OHIO DEMOCRATS NOMINATE TICKET

Vociferous Cheers for William J. Bryan as Leader of Democracy

PLATFORM AGAINST REBATES

President Roosevelt's Action in Purchase of Canal Supplies Endorsed—Favors Fixing of Rates by Inter-State Commission.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Columbus, O., June 28.—After a continuous session of six hours, the Ohio Democratic Convention to-day named the following State ticket to be voted on at the State election in November:

Governor—John M. Pattison, of Clermont county.

Lieutenant-Governor — Louis B. Houck, of Knox county.

Supreme Judge—Hugh T. Mathers, of Shelby county.

Attorney General—James A. Rice, of Stark county.

State Treasurer—Charles F. Mason, of Butler county.

Member of the Board of Public Works—Patrick C. McGovern, of Muskingum county.

The office of State Treasurer was the only one for which only one name was presented for consideration, eight contestants lining up in the race for governor, and two ballots being necessary for both, that place and for supreme judge. There was no dissent from the platform when it was finally presented, all elements of the party having settled their differences in the long sessions of the committee.

Chairman Daugherty caused excitement by reading a communication from National Committeeman John R McLean, who wrote from Washington offering his resignation, which was at once accepted. The chairman in answer to a question said that he believed that this convention could do nothing looking to the filling of the vacancy, that duty falling to the National Committee and the delegates to the next National convention. Mr. McLean's letter gave no explanation for his resignation.

The greatest demonstration of the convention came at the close of Chairman Daugherty's speech, when an impromptu tribute to William J. Bryan as the party leader in the nation, brought out a storm of cheers that lasted fully a minute, and vociferous applause was repeated later in the convention when other speakers referred to Mr. Bryan.

The platform says in part:

"We note with satisfaction the determination of the national administration to purchase supplies for the Panama canal in the markets of the world and not pay tribute to our protected monopolies. We trust that the day may soon come when the common people of this country may enjoy the same privilege.

"We demand that our representatives in Congress aid in the enactment of such laws as will prevent all rebates and secret contracts by railways and will guarantee the same service to every citizen.

"We favor the conferring upon the Inter-State Commerce Commission the power, when it finds a rate unreasonable, to fix a rate reasonable."

The platform pledges the party to eniminate graft and political corruption; demands assessment of public service corportions for taxation at thier salable value, the taxation of local franchise privileges, and the right of local governments to decide between public and private ownership of public utilities.

Chance For Wilmington.

Mr. Geo. C. Hussman, viticulturist of the Department of Agriculture at Washington, was here yesterday to see what progress was being made in regard to securing the location of the State test farm here. Mr. Hussman says the national government would like to have the use of 20 acres of the proposed farm to conduct an experiment vineyard for the culture of grapes in this section and would be glad if the location were here. He went up to Willard yesterday to see what can be done in securing 20 acres of the farm there in case it is decided not to change the location. Mr. Hussman called at the offices of Messrs Hugh MacRae & Co., while in the city, and was assured of the use of all the land the government needed for the grape experiment farm either in connection with or independent of the State farm.
